

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

1 May 1972

The Honorable James B. Rhoads
Archivist of the United States
Washington, D. C. 20408

Dear Mr. Rhoads:

I am answering your letter of 18 April on behalf of Mr. Helms. We originally objected to releasing the register because the titles alone could be misinterpreted without the benefit of the related correspondence. Since the ledger entries also appear in the Commission's master list of numbered documents which is now in the public domain, this Agency has no further reason to withhold the ledger from public inspection.

Sincerely,

Lawrence R. Houston
General Counsel
